

Life Group Questions

PURPOSE – A Study of the Book of Esther Part 2 – It's Your Time

Connect

Share a time when somebody kept you accountable for something.

Engage

Read Esther 2:1-18.

- Putting yourself in the position of the women who are sent to represent their province, what is going through your mind?
- What is King Xerxes looking for in a queen?

Read Esther 4:1-17.

- What is the situation for the Jewish people and what is Mordecai doing to help his people?
- How does Queen Esther handle Mordecai's request?
- What was her hollow purpose and what can we learn from her?

Apply

1. How do you keep yourself accountable to your true calling in light of your hollow purpose?
2. Do you think you need someone like Mordecai in your life to keep you accountable? Why?
3. As followers of Jesus at Westgate, we have the means (time, resources, knowledge) to reach, help, and love others for Christ. The need around us is great. How will you respond to your true calling this week and beyond?
